MRS. GEORGE HUNT DIES SUDDENLY

Pvt. Paul Hilton Miller Succumbs at Quantico—F. R. Shaw Dead.

Mrs. George F. Hunt, 216 S. Race, died suddenly Thursday morning of organic heart trouble. She was found lying on the floor near the telephone by her husband when he arrived home for dinner. Mrs. Hunt is survived by her husband and two sons, Gerald, of San Francisco, and Edward, at home.

She was born in Portage township Aug. 8, 1856, and was married in 1877 to George F. Hunt. She had lived here for the past four years, coming to this city from South Bend in 1917.

Mrs. Hunt was prominent in Eastern Star circles and was a member of the local grange. She was also a member of the ladies' hand of the Dodge Manufacturing company. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Paul Hilton Miller, 27 years old, died Thursday of the death of Pvt. Paul Hilton Miller of the United States marine corps at Quantico, Va. Death resulted from influenza. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, 138 W. Broadway, and two sisters, Mary, of New York, and Althea, at home.

Pvt. Miller was born in Mishawaka on Oct. 18, 1893, and previous to his enlistment was a student at the Mishawaka high school. He enlisted in the marine corps in June of last year, and was sent to Parris Island, S. C., where he received elementary training and was then transferred to the marine barracks at Quantico, where he served as a motor truck driver. The remains will arrive in the city Saturday.

Fantley Ray Shaw, 67 years old, 227 E. Broadway, died at his residence Thursday afternoon, following an illness of three weeks. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Robert J. Shaw, of Wilbur, of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Claude, of Cridersville, O.; and Mrs. Julius Albers, of Van Wert, O. He is also survived by one brother and one sister, Robert Shaw, of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Bert Shaw, of Mishawaka. Mr. Shaw was buried in Wapakoneta, O., Dec. 7, 1887, and came here from that place 20 years ago. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

"CENTURY MIDNIGHT WHIRL."
In the "Century Midnight Whirl," which John Henry Meers is bringing to the Oliver theater on Saturday, Jan. 22, the well known stars in the cast are said to appear in novel comedy scenes. Of course they all participate in the singing and dancing that form much of the entertainment in this offering. In the company are Richard Cane, Blanche Ring, Winona Winter, Charles Winniger, and Jay Gould. Then while everybody is happy over the meretricious provided by the comedians, there come catchy melodies sung by girls who are said to dance alluringly to the captivations, and there are specialties by Mexican and Brown and the other Twains and the others who form the company.

Bible Class Entertained.
The Loyal Woman's bible class of the First Baptist church was entertained at an all-day meeting, Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harvey W. Jones, 412 W. Mishawaka av. The affair was in honor of Miss Sarah Gabor, a prominent member of the class and an aunt of Mrs. Jones. The day was spent socially and noon a delightful luncheon was served. Various readings and games featured the afternoon's entertainment.

READING CIRCLE MEETING.
The North Side Reading circle met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Perry. The devotional services were conducted in an evangelistic way, preparatory to the revival services being held at the Methodist Episcopal church.

CENTURY VAUDEVILLE OFFERS NOVELTIES

Starting tonight the Century will present four acts of vaudeville and a five reel motion picture. Among the stage novelties are the Three Gibson Girls and Rice in a song and dance revue combined with musical specialties that are said to be decidedly entertaining. The trio of girls are attractive and Eddie Rice is a clever comedian. "Getting His Number" is the vaudeville skit presented by Dezel and Woodward and it is filled with laughable lines and situations. Jackson Marshall whistles and gives comedy imitations while Miller and Miller complete the bill with a juggling specialty built along original lines. The show will continue Saturday and Sunday.

S. KISSINGER CASE TRIED IN CITY COURT

The trial of Sherman Kissinger, charged with the unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor, took up all of the Thursday morning session of the city court. The State introduced six witnesses. Judge Feig has taken the case under advisement until Saturday morning.

Musical Contest to Be Held in Methodist Church

Everything is in readiness for the musical contest under the direction of Miss Jeanne Terry, which is to be held in the First Methodist church this evening at 7:45. The contest is in keeping with a nationwide campaign to familiarize children with the higher classes of music.

Each contestant is to be provided with a blank on which is to be recorded the name of the composer and the composition, as it is played on the organ. The public is cordially invited to attend.

"FRUGUE VICTORIAE," NAME
"Frugue Victoriae" is the name of a football review recently published in the interest of the Mishawaka high school. The booklet contains 18 pages and is devoted to a review of the 1920 football season in which the Maroon and White squad annexed the state title.

It contains full accounts of every contest played and in addition carries 18 half-tones of the individual members of the squad. A large part of the composition was done in the high school printery and the expenses of the publication were met through the advertisements of Mishawaka merchants. It has now been placed on sale and any person desiring a copy may receive one by calling at the High School.

At The Temple.
"Tiger Cub," featuring Pearl White will be shown at the Temple theater for the last times today.

The film abounds in the kind of action and suspense that keep one continually alert and is filled with heart appeal and human interest touches. It is declared to be one of Miss White's greatest photoplays.

"BALL-BAND" FOREMEN ELECT NEW OFFICERS

E. N. Weber is President of Woolen Company Organization.

The annual meeting of the Ball-Band Foremen's club was held in the rest rooms of the company above the cafeteria Wednesday night and was one of the most enthusiastic in every respect ever held. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, E. N. Weber; vice president, I. C. Boies; secretary, F. M. Boies; treasurer, O. A. Repligie; executive committee, three years, R. B. Porter; two years, R. Rogstman; one year, J. Tabor.

The club was organized in October, 1920, and has 156 active members. The success of the organization has already been fully established. Its objects are to give the management, foremen and their assistants an opportunity to get better acquainted. The club meets on the second Wednesday of each month.

After Wednesday's night meeting a splendid luncheon was served in the cafeteria by the ladies connected with this department.

Aside from the regular meetings the club has featured some exciting indoor ball games on the third floor of the new building at the foot of Spring st. The use of the floor has been granted by the management of the company until such times as the rapid expansion of the business of the company will make it necessary to convert this floor into factory purposes. The club has also a six-team bowling league which occupies the Pastime alleys Monday evenings.

WOMAN FOR MAYOR OF MISHAWAKA IS MOVE OF DEMOCRATS

MISHAWAKA.
"I am not a candidate," said Mayor Ralph W. Gaylor to a reporter last night when asked his intentions regarding the mayoralty of Mishawaka which position has been his for seven years.

The democrats of the city have not been saying much in connection with this year's elections. After considering a number of likely candidates several prominent democrats are said to have resolved to have a woman candidate to head their ticket this year. Other cities in Indiana have already chosen women for the mayoralty race.

Mrs. Rose F. Grimes, for the past 35 years a teacher in the Mishawaka public schools, and a Wilson democrat, is the choice of democrats and many republicans for the position. Last fall Mrs. Grimes was retired on a pension by the board of education.
